NACCA PRESENTS BLACK HISTORY MONTH

The Black Family

Source of Perseverance and Resilience

Black History Month - February 2023

Throughout the month of February, Newmarket African Caribbean Canadian Association (NACCA) will endeavour to explore various aspects of the Black family's ability to sustain perseverance and resilience. As always, we encourage that the education around Black History Month continues not only in February but throughout the year. Please join us in celebrating Black History with these free events:

Featuring

- Art Exhibit and Gallery all month long
- Proclamation by Newmarket Mayor John Taylor
- Flag Raising Ceremony, Pan African Flag
- Black History Reception and Ujamaa Market Place
- Speaker series with Ginelle Skerritt
- Evening Falls Illumination Honoring Black History Month
- Achievers in Black Excellence panel discussion
- Author reading with Shauntay Grant, author of Africville
- African Fables family storytelling event
- Film screening and discussion, "Barrel Children: The Families Windrush Left Behind"

Visit us online for complete details of all events and activities.
