WORKING TOGETHER FOR SOLUTIONS

If you have feedback about the service you have received from our Child Welfare services, Child and Youth Mental Health program, Coordinated Service Planning program, or Youth Justice Coordinator Program, we would like to hear it.

1. Discuss your concerns with your worker.
2. If that doesn't work for you, call the agency and ask to speak to your worker's supervisor.
3. If that doesn't work for you, call the agency and ask to speak with the Senior Manager
4. Still no resolution? Ask to speak with our Executive Director.
5. If this still doesn't help, look to our Internal Complaint Review Panel or the Ontario Ombudsman.

OMBUDSMAN ONTARIO CHILDREN & YOUTH UNIT

The Ombudsman is an Officer of the Legislative Assembly of Ontario. The office promotes fairness, and is responsible in the public sector to resolve and look into complaints and systemic issues within its office area. The office can answer your questions, inform you of your rights, connect you to others who can help, hear your complaints and may look into your concerns further. The Ombudsman listens to your concerns about your children's aid society, foster home, group home, secure treatment facility or youth justice facility.

Children's aid societies are responsible for informing the Ombudsman in writing and without delay if they learn you have been seriously injured and you may receive contact from the Ombudsman to ask to get an update from you and see how you've been feeling.

If you have any concerns about yourself or someone you know that you would like to discuss with the Ombudsman, please call their office at 1-800-263-2841 or 416-325-5669 or visit their website: www.ombudsman.on.ca.

INTERNAL COMPLAINT REVIEW PANEL

The Internal Complaint Review Panel (ICRP) can also review your complaint. The panel consists of a senior manager, a service manager and someone who doesn't work with us.

Matters not reviewed by the ICRP:

- Issues already decided by the Court.
- Anything mandated by law, The Child, Youth and Family Services Act or the Labour Relations Act.
- Issues raised by someone who didn't receive service from us.

If you believe your complaint qualifies, you can provide your complaint in writing to us, Attention: Internal Complaint Review Panel.

HAVE WE VIOLATED YOUR RIGHTS?

A complaint can be about your rights being violated, the care you are receiving and/or how we are supporting you.

- 1 You or someone on your behalf can complain directly to our Intake department by speaking to a worker, care provider or putting your concerns in writing.
- 2 When we receive the complaint, we will make sure you are safe and supported. You will be supported by a staff member, not by the person who the complaint is about.
- 3 Within 7 days of receiving your complaint, we will gather more information and provide support to: the person who made the complaint as long as you give permission, you and your support person if you want, and anyone else involved if necessary.
- 4 You or the person who made the complaint, with your permission, can receive an update whenever we are asked or every 15 days after we get the complaint.
- 5 All the information will be documented in your file.

If we have violated your rights, we want to make sure it doesn't happen again. Your voice helps make change. If you make a complaint, you will not experience negative consequences.

For more information on your rights, view the brochure on our website: <https://familyconnexions.ca/brochures/>

You have the right to be safe, to be heard and to be part of all decisions about you that affect you.
